Thank you for your donation to The Cavalcade of History and Fashion Inc. As you would understand, its value as an item of history and fashion would be greatly enhanced by any information, no matter how brief, relating to its background. Such information would be much appreciated and would be of considerable interest for Cavalcade's activities (parades, presentations and displays) and for students of fashion and history. Information that would prove most valuable would include:

Who wore the item? (include approx. era when the item was worn)

Was the item worn at a Special Occasion?

---

---

Is there anything unusual about the item? Example: It has a concealed pocket.

---

---

---

What can you tell us about their life and their family?

Are there any interesting stories or anecdotes about the original wearer or family?
